

 7:00 PM — THE ACCUSATION

STATION 1

“By the moon's light / I was dragged out / by men who knew me... / Living alone / offends them.”

— MARGARET ATWOOD, HALF-HANGED MARY

THE CRUCIBLE PAIRING: ABIGAIL WILLIAMS & ACT I ALLEGATIONS

STATION PROMPT & ANALYSIS CHALLENGE

Table Task: Analyze how economic status and non-conformity trigger accusations in both texts. Record 1 quote from The Crucible showing how gossip turns into legal peril.

GROUP RESPONSE NOTES

10:00 PM — THE CROWD'S GAZE

STATION 2

"The bonfire of their eyes / lit up the dark... / They wanted a show, / a moral lesson."

— MARGARET ATWOOD, HALF-HANGED MARY

THE CRUCIBLE PAIRING: MARY WARREN & THE COURT SPECTACLE (ACT III)

STATION PROMPT & ANALYSIS CHALLENGE

Table Task: Discuss the role of public pressure in maintaining false testimony. How does the mob's expectation force compliance from vulnerable individuals?

GROUP RESPONSE NOTES

 12:00 AM — GODS & SILENCE

“God is a dark word... / Prayers are bullets / aimed at the sky.”

— MARGARET ATWOOD, HALF-HANGED MARY

THE CRUCIBLE PAIRING: JOHN PROCTOR'S JAILHOUSE CRISIS (ACT IV)

STATION PROMPT & ANALYSIS CHALLENGE

Table Task: Examine how both authors depict divine silence during institutional corruption. What causes a character's spiritual crisis under persecution?

GROUP RESPONSE NOTES

3:00 AM — PHYSICAL RESISTANCE

STATION 4

“Death is a soft thing... / Life is what hurts. / I hold on by my teeth.”

— MARGARET ATWOOD, HALF-HANGED MARY

THE CRUCIBLE PAIRING: GILES COREY’S DEFIANCE (“MORE WEIGHT”)

STATION PROMPT & ANALYSIS CHALLENGE

Table Task: Compare Mary's physical endurance on the gallows with Giles Corey's refusal to plead. How does bodily endurance challenge corrupt authority?

GROUP RESPONSE NOTES

6:00 AM — THE FAILURE OF THE NOOSE

STATION 5

"Sun comes up. / I am still here. / The rope has stretched, / but not snapped."

— MARGARET ATWOOD, HALF-HANGED MARY

THE CRUCIBLE PAIRING: ELIZABETH PROCTOR'S FINAL MONOLOGUE

STATION PROMPT & ANALYSIS CHALLENGE

Table Task: Identify the moment when state or religious power fails to break individual integrity. Why are the authority figures unnerved by survival?

GROUP RESPONSE NOTES

8:00 AM — RADICAL AUTONOMY

STATION 6

“Before, I was not a witch. / But now I am one... / Freedom is a cold wind.”

— MARGARET ATWOOD, HALF-HANGED MARY

THE CRUCIBLE PAIRING: PROCTOR'S REFUSAL TO GIVE HIS NAME

STATION PROMPT & ANALYSIS CHALLENGE

Table Task: Synthesize how persecution alters identity. How does surviving or defying an unjust court lead to a state of radical, unassailable autonomy?
